HENRY MILLER MOFFETT.

A DISTINGUISHED CITIZEN OF POCAHONTAS.

A Life Sketch of Henry M. Moffett and His Family by W. T. Price.

This eminent citizen bore a prominent part in the early organized history of our county as for a time the assistant and then the successor of Josiah Beard as clerk of the county of Pocahontas.

His ancestry is traceable to John Moffett, son of Augustus in county, and the first recorded mention of this ancestor's name is to the effect that on June 24, 1742 he qualified as a Lieutenant of one of the first military companies raised in Augusta county.

John Moffett's wife was Mary Christian and he settled in the vicinity of the old Stone Church. Sometime provisionally to 1749, John Moffett left home for North Carolina and was never heard of afterwards. His friends rested in the opinion that he was slain by Indians, whereupon Mrs. Mary Moffett February 28, 1749 qualified to administer on the estate, giving bond for 500 pounds, with her brothers William and Robert Christian as securities.

Col. George Moffett oldest son of John Moffett and Mary Christian was born in 1785.

His wife was a sister of Col. Samuel McDowell of Timber Ridge.

Col. Moffett was prominent in the Indian wars and the Revolution. In civil affairs he was justice of the peace, an officer in the Presbyterian church and one of the trustees of Washington College, Lexington, Va. He died in 1811, aged 76 years and was buried in the Augusta church graveyard, near Ft. Detention station. He is reported to have been a man of commanding personal presence, and of eminent piety.

James McDowell Moffett, father of the Pocahontas clerk, was Col. Thomas Moffett's second son, whose wife was Hanna Miller, daughter of James Miller, the founder of her mother by a rash to keep her from falling off. Mrs. Moffett was in the act of dismounting was injured by the rash, and fatal illness developed and she died unexpectedly, when the new house was nearing completion. Mr. Moffett passed away not long after occupying the new residence one of the most commodious of its kind, near Hillsboro, and the property passed into the possession of the late Col. Paul McNeel. Mrs. Edgar the present lady of the mansion is a daughter of Col. McNeel.

Maggie Beall, Mr. Moffett's step-daughter became the wife of the late Dr. George B. Moffett, his youngest brother. Dr. Moffett's son, Robert, resides in Missouri and the other son James holds an important position in the service of the Standard Oil concern. His eldest daughter Hannah and first son James William died very young at the farm home near Huntersville. Sally Gatewood became the wife of Dr. Alexander McChesney for many years resident Physician Warrenton Springs, Va. and was a Confederate officer in command of one of the cavalry companies of the Bath squadron. Martha became Mrs. Hall of Barbour County and resides near Phillippi, W. Va. Mary Eveline was married to the late Col. William P. Thompson, of New York city. A few years since she died in France, in quest of health. Her remains were brought back to America. These young people casually met at the Gury Spring, near Huntersville, early in the war, and it seems to have been an instance of mutual esteem at first sight. The simple unadorned story of the long wooing and engaged and finally their hurried marriage, when the war was over, would make something readable and not easily duplicated by ingenious fiction.

yard, near Ft. Defiance station.
He is reported to have been a man of commanding personal

James McDowell Moffett, father of the Pocahontas clerk, was Col.
Geo. Moffett's second son, whose wife was Hannah Miller, daughter of Henry Miller the founder of Miller's Iron Works near Mossy Creek, Va., where most of the iron used by our pioneer blacksmiths was manufactured. Late in the twenties Mr. Moffett came to Pocahontas with his widowed mother and located on the farm near Huntersville at the opposite end of the Bridge. Here he resided some years while performing his official duties. Early in the thirties he married Mrs. Mary Nance Beale, relict of Robert Beale, Esq., who upon Mr. Beale's death had left Elk and lived on her farm near Hillsboro now owned by Frank Harper.

Mrs. Beale was the second daughter of Major William Poage once owner of all of Marlins Bottom, near Marlinton.

Mr. Moffett becoming weary of official life, sold his Huntersville property to the late Hugh Mc-Laughlin, declined re-election to the clerkship, purchased the farm owned by Captain Edgar and settled in the Levels about 1838.

James Tallman, his deputy became clerk and served us such very efficiently for several years.
The office becoming vacant by Tallman's much lamented death, Mr. Moffett was reappointed clerk and returned to Huntersville about the year 1843 and occupied a residence at the corner of the lot now owned by G. W. Ginger.

This residence was burned while undergoing repairs, soon after it was vacated by Mr. Moffett's retirement to the Levels, at the expiration of his term of office.

His laudable aim now seemed to be the establishing of an ideal home for his family to whom he was so tenderly attached, where he could pass his last years in the peaceful quiet pursuits of a rural life, removed from the vexations and distracting uncertainties of a busy world.

Mrs. Moffett was injured by a frightened horse as she was returning from a visit to friends near Mill Point one afternoon.
She was carrying her infant son in her arms while a little daughter, sitting beside her was attached to adorned story of the long wooing that ensued and finally their buried marriage, when the war was over, would make something readable and not easily duplicated even by ingenious fiction.

Rachel the youngest daughter became Mrs. Dr. Robert McCheeney, a prominent physician, Lewisburg, W. Va. George Henry, the youngest born of this notable Pocahontas family is so well known to our readers, that we can tell them nothing new. He was a soldier in the Confederate war, and was a prisoner. Studied law, and for some years a prominent member of the Huntersville bar, returned to the West Va. House of Delegates and chosen speaker of that body. He became a distinguished journalist in Wheeling, Minneapolis and Portland, Oregon.
At present he occupies an important position as attorney for a railroad system with his office at Parkersburg.

Henry M. Moffett, Esq. was a native of Augusta county, related to the Millers, Christians, Mc-Coes and other prominent families of Augusta, Rockingham and Reekbridge and was held in high esteem by his distinguished relatives. While James McDowell Governor of Virginia Mr. Moffett put a drove of his Pocahontas cattle into the Richmond market.
The Governor incidentally learning the fact, looked him up, had him for a privileged guest at the executive Mansion, over the Sabbath, took him to church in the morning, led him to his own family pew and sat by him through the services.

Mr. Moffett was crushed by his bereavement and did not survive his wife, but a very few years.
He passed away very peacefully having made a good record in the service of his adopted county, that had honored him repeatedly with the best office in her power to confer. His grave is in the old brick church yard and marked by a neat marble.

My name is Mary West and I have been researching my family history at the WV Genealogical Society here in Elkview.

I have been running into a problem locating 3 ancestors of mine, but especially one in particular by the name of Elizabeth Hicks.

Elizabeth Hicks is my Gr Gr Gr Grandmother, she married William Washington Nottingham who was the son of Jacob Washington Nottingham, who was the son of William Nottingham who married Susannah O'Brien and immigrated to America from England in about 1778. I am sending copies that have all the information.

The other 2 I am looking for are Elizabeth and William Washington's son's James S. Nottingham and Newton Nottingham, more specifically their wives maiden names, where they married and lived, and the wives parents names and where you locate them at so I can research further. And also the Fitzwater connection - see below.

James S Nottingham married Mary M ? and Newton married Elizabeth ?.

The Fitzwater's are tied in with James S and Mary M somehow, I don't know if she was married to a Fitzwater before James S or if her maiden name was Fitzwater or her maiden name may have been Perdue, see the article I have enclosed on Sarah Perdue Wood. She may also have been married to a Sergeant or it may have been her maiden name.

My Grandmother Mary Ellen Nottingham was said to have step brothers and sisters some were "Billy" William Sergeant and Thomas Sergeant. There are Fitzwater's listed in the Clay Census with James S and Mary M, but they are listed as Grandchildren. My father's only living brother says that Emma and "Nettie" Jeanetta (or Jenetta) Fitzwater were his mother Mary Ellen Nottingham's 1/2 sisters but I think they may have just been raised together.

One of the reasons I am making this request to you is that they began around Bath Co, VA, Pocahontas Co, (W) Va, Braxton Co, and then into Clay. I am hoping that you may be able to locate Elizabeth Hicks in Bath Co or Pocahontas Co, and hopefully also James S and Newton's wives and families.

Any leads you could find for me would be greatly appreciated.

I am enclosing a $10 check, if this is not enough let me know.

Soon after the Civil War ended there was a killing on Big Buffalo Creek. John Stuart Nottingham, an eleven year old boy murdered his father James.

There had been a lot of family trouble and Quarrels among relatives. The boy said his <sup>Elizabeth Hicks</sup> ~~Uncle~~ had hired him to kill his father.

The jury heard testimony, and returned a verdict of guilty. In view of the boys age and evidence of a lack of good moral training, the younger received a prison term rather than execution.

George Nicholas, grandfather of the boy and one of the most respected citizens of Clay County, petition the governor to commute the lad's sentence.

Nicholas agreed to take care of the boy and to be responsible for his good behavior.

The petition was signed by the judge, the prosecuting attorney, and the members of the jury.

The Governor released the boy to the custody of his grandfather to climax one of the most noted murder cases in Clay County.

At the time the population of the county was less than 2,000.

The 1870 Clay Co Census, Buffalo Township District, shows Elizabeth Hicks living with William C Siers. The Census shows Elizabeth as House Keeper, and Newton and James as farm laborers. She also had another child living with her named Sarah born in 1862. I don't know if this was a granddaughter or a child she had after her husband William Washington died. Elizabeth remarried Oct 12, 1884 to William C Siers.

William Washington, Sr. drowned in the Elk River in April 1853. His son William Washington, Jr. was born about the time of his death.

William Washington, Sr.'s wife Elizabeth Hicks was said to have instigated the shooting of William Washington, Sr.'s brother James B Nottingham, by hiring James B's 11 year old son John Stewart to shoot his father.

James B's son John Stewart was tried and found guilty and sent to State prison. His grandfather George Nicholas petitioned the governor to release John Stewart to his custody to raise. He raised John Stewart and a couple of James B's other children. James B married Catherine Nicholas, George Nicholas' daughter.

Wood, William

William and Sarah Perdue Wood lived in Widen, Clay Co. when few hints were there. I know their clever children's names, some of their spouses, James, John, Alice Butcher, Hugh, Lydia Butcher.

Lucinda Martin Wood

er, sister to Albre. Thomas, Jackson, Lucinda Martin (1861-1941) Samuel Newton (Nute) Johnson (1866-1937) my parents, Joseph, Elliott-Jane (Belle) Hoffman, Richard Louis-Martha Bishop; Mary Ward Rogers, and Howard the baby when their mother died of typhoid fever and quinsy October 29, 1852. She is buried near an oak tree on hill from her home, second grave there. Lucinda spent winter 1882 with Sarah's sister Mrs. James Nottingham. Hugh came during spring 1884, walked with her to Cherry Bottoms now Richmond, spent the night, only family there named Mullins, ferried them across the river next day and continued on foot the trip across Cold Knob to Trout, Greenbrier Co. Grandfather Wood married Polly Hamrick from Webster Co., lived 2 miles from Trout. Bill and Polly had four children: George died age 15, Mattie died young, Dave-Salena Johnston and Allen. Mary lived on Little Laurel, worked for Ward's brother-in-law Jergens in his restaurant in Richmond during 1920's. I visited them in 1939-40; Ward died same year. Mary couple of years later. They had four children, Hugh, a blacksmith for coal companies around Widen, made drills and plow, sold patents, Elbert (Eli) went to state of Oregon 1910, some of his family live in state of Washington. Howard worked in Wyoming Co., where he cut timber, died in job-related accident. Richard had several children, we saw him more than any of the family. Dave had six children. Lucinda lived awhile at home, then "hired out" to Janetta Decker to pay for some corn. She stayed with Nancy Hart Douglas until she married in 1889, same year Nute bought the Douglas farm, mile west of Trout where Bill, Polly and children are buried. Lucinda and Nute had twelve children: Gavael-Rufus Williams-nine, Kenous-Rosie Viers-four, 2nd-Effie Armentrout four, Sally-Roscoe Webb-six, Mable-Judson Williams-one dau, Nancy-Willie Stanley-five, W. F. (Bill) Virgie Lewis-four, Paulina-Tildon Sizemore-one son, 2nd Hubert Cochran, Richard-Tessie Lagg three sons, Etta-Charles Patton-seven, Dave-Eva Huffman-three, Dena-James Kincaid-four, Wilda-Dave Baldwin-three, 2nd Lloyd Nicely-three, Dick-Dena and Wilda (twins) survive. Luchildren having first school in 1852 Woods (Case) Woods, Richard W. and William Woods and a sister Barbara Woods, Shirley Woods, H. Woods, Wilma Woods, Fannie Woods and Jane Woods.

Wayne remembers attending no different schools. The one he attended was located at Swanda. After finishing school, at the age of 12, he started work at the sawmill owned at that time by Bill Pierson. He is presently working at the same sawmill.

On July 10, 1971, Wayne married Cora Francis Bucklin also of Clay County. Guldin's parents are Genevieve (Bill) Bucklin and Wilbur Owen Bucklin who is deceased.

The children of this marriage are: W. W. Bucklin born July 6, 1962, Genevieve M. Woods born November 11, 1971, Christina R. Woods born November 4, 1984; Danielle S. Woods born July 22, 1991.

They first lived at Grannies Creek. Then in 1974 they moved to Bickmore where Wayne bought two and a half acres. On the land he started a hobby of growing a few hogs. Soon he started into the purebred swine business. Later he became a member of the Tamworth Hampshire Association. This led him and his family to become active in F.F.A. program at Clay High School. Also in the West Virginia State Fair.

The Elusive Campbell Woods

Campbell Woods was born 12 Feb. 1823, probably in Nicholas County, West Virginia (then Virginia), but I have no proof of this. My search has been going on for many years, and I am no closer to finding the parents of Campbell Woods than I was in 1975. By checking the 1820 thru 1840 Census of that area it appears that John or Stephen Woods are the only logical males who could be his parents. Campbell Woods married Sarah Rebecca Stephenson, born 15 February 1822, daughter of Joshua and Nancy (Dodrill) Stephenson early settlers of Nicholas County.

Campbell and Rebecca raised their family in Cave Hollow, living near some of her kinfolks. They are buried there in the Woods Cemetery, and have large marble markers. He died 8 August 1891 of the flux and Rebecca on being told of
